The Treasurer acquainted the Society that he had now kept their Accompts about 4 years & an ha

Received, either by Quarterly Subscriptions, Entrance-money, or other Benefactions, but only for such Audits:) that tho' he always gave Receipts for all Moneys Recd. yet since but few of the Society have bee could not produce them as Vouchers for the Sums received, nor consequently demonstrate to the Auditors, that his own, as for the general Satisfaction, a Committee may be appointed to Review all his Audits, and to Examin to make good any Mistake or Oversight which, perhaps, (in so long a time, & in Entering so many small Sums accordingly appointed to meet at his house on the 20th Instant, in Order to Examimine his said Audits

We whose names are underwritten, being the Committee appointed to review Mr Shute's Audits, have mett accordingly; and strictly Examined all his Accompts from his first entering upon the Office of Treasurer, March 3, 1700, unto the 20th of August 1705, and do find that all Moneys Received by him from the Members of this Society at their Admission, all Quarterly Payments, as far as their Names are thus Crossed in this Book X. And also all Benefactions both to the Plantations, and to the Society, (as appear's by the Minutes,) have been faithfully & exactly Enter'd into his Accompts,
